WINE

MICHEL GONET BLANC DE BLANCS

CHAMPAGNE, FRANCE

There's no question Champagne makes the best sparkling wine in the world. This style from the small producer Michel Gonet is meant to be tart and refreshing.

DOMAINE ROULOT BOURGOGNE BLANC

CHARDONNAY BLEND • FRANCE 2018

Domaine Roulot has always been among the best producers of White Burgundy. White wines from their village of Meursault in France are considered the world's greatest. This is the homeland of chardonnay and Jean-Marc Roulot is the master. Rich, savory, and elegant, this is special.

LIEU DIT SAUVIGNON BLANC

WHITE • SANTA YNEZ, CA 2017

This project was started by a winemaker and sommelier from California who are passionate about the wines from France's iconic Loire Valley region Sancerre. They decided to stay local and make wines in the style of the Old World. This Sauvignon Blanc is savory, herbaceous, and very light and dry.

BENANTI ETNA ROSSO

NERELLO MASCALESE • SICILY, ITALY 2017

The Benanti Estate is located on the volcano, Mount Etna, in Sicily. This producer celebrates the native grapes of the island, nerello mascalese. The wines are similar to the great pinot noirs of the world, light, fresh, and easy drinking.

J.L. CHAVE SELECTIONS 'MON COEUR'

SYRAH • CÔTES DU RHÔNE, FRANCE 2017

Jean Louis Chave's family has been making wine on the hill of Hermitage in France's Rhone Valley since the 1400s. This wine made from syrah and grenache grapes. It's rich, smoky, and juicy.
